

Duke University Talent Identification Program

Box 90780 Durham, North Carolina 27708-0780 • 919-668-9100 • 7talentsearch@tip.duke.edu

2019-20 Talent Search/SAT ID Form

(THIS IS AN IDENTIFICATION FORM, NOT AN ADMISSION TICKET)

Save this ID and present it on test day, along with your admission ticket.

Student's Full Name (Print)

is an enrollee in the Duke University Talent Identification Program (Duke TIP) 7th Grade Talent Search. If the above-named student has an SAT® admission ticket with name, date of birth, and other information matching your test center attendance roster, they have registered with College Board to take the SAT on the specified test date and should be admitted to the test center. The student's photograph is not required on the admission ticket. Additional forms of identification are also not required! This procedure has been approved by College Board, as noted in the sections on acceptable identification in the SAT and SAT Subject Tests Student Registration Booklet and The SAT and SAT Subject Tests Coordinator Manual. Thank you.

Student's Signature (Required)

Kristen Southworth
Talent Search Manager
Duke University Talent Identification Program

Parent or Legal Guardian's Signature (Required)

DO NOT RETURN THIS FORM TO DUKE TIP OR TO COLLEGE BOARD.

© 2019 College Board.

Bring these on test day:

Admission Ticket • No. 2 Pencils with Erasers • Calculator • This ID Form

If you're unable to test due to illness (or any other reason), call
SAT Customer Service toll free at 866-756-7346 to request a test date change.
You'll be charged an additional change fee of $30.

NOTE: As stated in the 2019-20 SAT Directions Guide, if you test after March and achieve a qualifying score, you won't be eligible to attend Duke TIP recognition ceremonies; however, your medal will be mailed to you in the summer.

Please make every attempt to attend the testing!
Failure to test will result in forfeiture of registration fee.

136629-008719 • UNLWEB719

I.N. 812748