2020-21 Talent Search/SAT ID Form

(THIS IS AN IDENTIFICATION FORM, NOT AN ADMISSION TICKET)

Print this ID and present it on test day, along with your admission ticket.

Student’s Full Name (Print)

is an enrollee in the Duke University Talent Identification Program (Duke TIP) Talent Search. If the above-named student has an SAT® admission ticket with name, date of birth, and other information matching your test center attendance roster, they have registered with College Board to take the SAT on the specified test date and should be admitted to the test center. The student’s photograph is not required on the admission ticket. Additional forms of identification are also not required! This procedure has been approved by College Board, as noted in the sections on acceptable identification in the SAT and SAT Subject Tests Student Registration Booklet and The SAT and SAT Subject Tests Coordinator Manual. Thank you.

Student’s Signature (Required)

Patricia Hege
Director of Enrollment Services
Duke University Talent Identification Program

Parent or Legal Guardian’s Signature (Required)

DO NOT RETURN THIS FORM TO DUKE TIP OR TO COLLEGE BOARD.

© 2020 College Board.

Bring these on test day:

Admission Ticket • No. 2 Pencils with Erasers • Calculator • This ID Form

If you can’t make your test date for any reason, including illness, call SAT Customer Service at 866-756-7346 to reschedule. You can do so before or after your scheduled test, but you will be charged a $30 fee unless the test center had to close (e.g., due to bad weather).

Please make every attempt to attend your scheduled test date or reschedule if you are unable to make that date. Test fees are non-refundable.